*Assumes shootings would have remained constant at pre-CeaseFire implementation levels. The Chicago Police Department revised the definition of a shooting in July 2003. No estimation of the effects on the data of this change have been done at this time.

Data source: Chicago Police Department, Research and Development Division. Shooting refers to an aggravated battery in which a firearm was used.

+ Housing changes also a factor.

++ CeaseFire Program in Grand Boulevard ended in 2002.
